of the college or the general student body, but the opinions of the ZENITH
'78 staff, High Point College, High Point, N.C.

In this world of ours
Not too many people
Dare to be different:
Instead, they stifle their Versatility by conforming to groups, losing their Identity and purpose in life.

Delve into your inner being and discover
you are a Unique and free individual
Attempting to express yourself through a
life of actions, thoughts and feelings.

Debbie Holcomb '80

Walk with your head high, and don't be afraid to be you.
 Walk with your feet planted firmly, and be proud of what you stand for.
 Walk with an air of certainty, and know what you want out of life.
 Walk with concern, for the ones around you.
 Walk with pride, for your beliefs.
 Walk with the knowledge, that you have gained in life.
 Walk with awareness, of people, places, and things.
 Walk with strength, and courage, you gain from day to day experiences.
 Walk with hope, and pride; and if troubles burden you,
 Walk on, with understanding.

Ginny Williamson '80

Building oneself up. ready for anything.
Using the extra thought and muscle.
Combining the mental with the physical
To come up with one's strength to survive.

Standing there. listening to the harsh words spoken.
Walking while fighting the pressures.
Running towards instead of away
To have the courage to stand tall.

Greg Norris '80

You are nothing but a speck
of dust
upon the lens of my glasses.
And if I were to wipe
that lens,
you'd be gone.
But I am careful
with my lens,
lest you should fall
and be lost
among all the other specks
of dust.

Edward A. Grandpre '78

I hope someday to find the land of dreamers-
where nothing is impossible
and everything is tried:
A land filled with people
born with faith in themselves who dare to be free
to yield to the calling of the innermost being and listen to their heart of freedom beating within.

Ann Glisson '79

People are like books
each with a different cover
having various titles some with many pages, and others with a few.

Each book has a subject
of its own.

Some books are open
to be read by many,
and others are closed
letting only a few readers know their contents.

Each book is to be cherished by its reader, for each has a special purpose.

"As Lights in the World"

-Philippians 2:15

*In the mass of shapeless shapes and faceless faces
Each inseparable from all the rest
There was one who stooped to share another's burden
And his face glowed like a sunset in the west.*

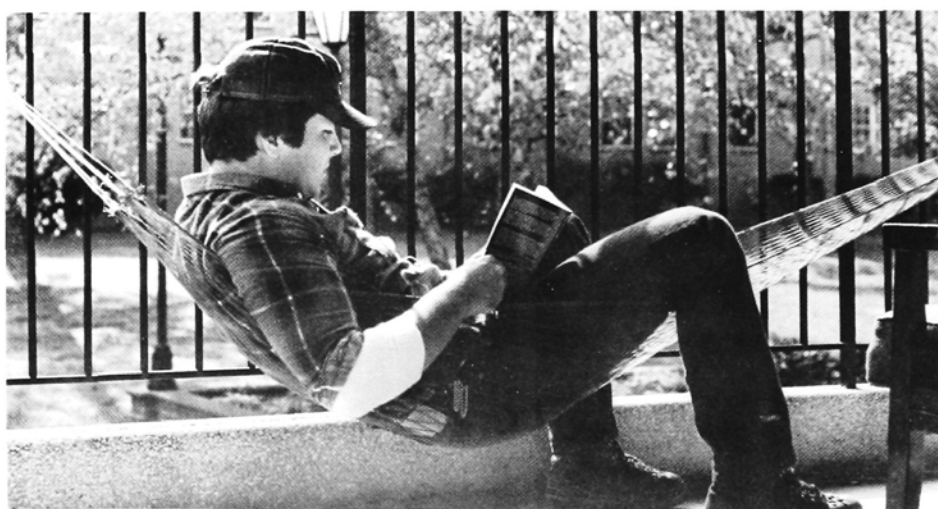

*When Jesus walked there were great crowds around Him.
When He spoke each ear was bent to hear.
His love was like a beacon in the desert
His life a light to bring lost wanderers near.*

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES ARE PLENTIFUL

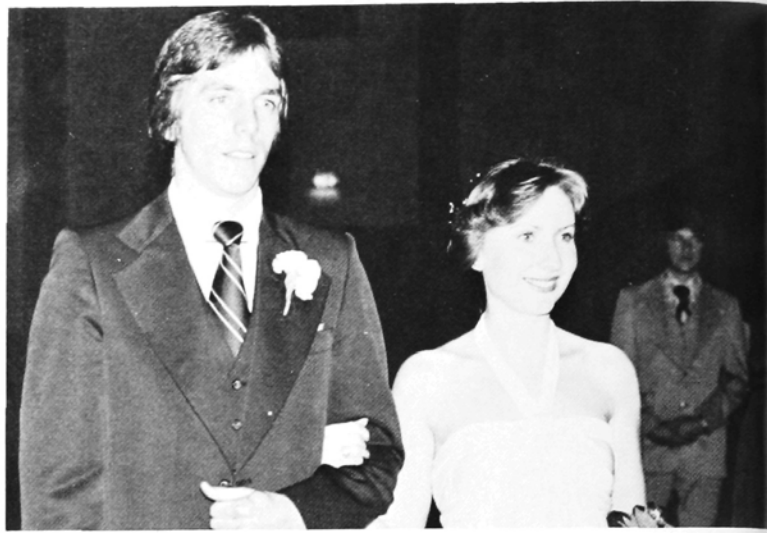

Homecoming 1978 included many activities, with the culmination of these events being the crowning of Sophomore Wendy Dunham as queen during the halftime activities of the HPC-Catawba Basketball game. A tie for first runners-up was between Seniors Cindy Gates and Germaine McCauley. Earlier in the week, there was a bonfire behind the gym, which was preceded by a pep rally. Comedian-juggler Michael Marlin entertained the half-time crowd at the HPC-Pembroke Basketball game Wednesday evening, and later performed in the Old Student Center. The annual Alumni Dance, which featured Mainstream, was at the Golden Eagle Motor Inn in Greensboro. Prior to Saturday's game, the Homecoming Court was presented, and the winners of the banner and displays competition were announced. The Rowdy Crowd award was presented to the Delta Sigma Phi's at half-time. Sunday evening, Richie Lecea and Bill Deal and the Rhondells performed in the auditorium. Their concert wrapped up a spirit-filled Alumni Week.

Alumni, Students, and Faculty mingled after the game.

Richie Lecea performed at the Homecoming Concert.

Ray Hall tied for the "Mr. Cool of HPC" contest.

Bill Deal and the Rhondells entertained at the concert with Richie Lecea.

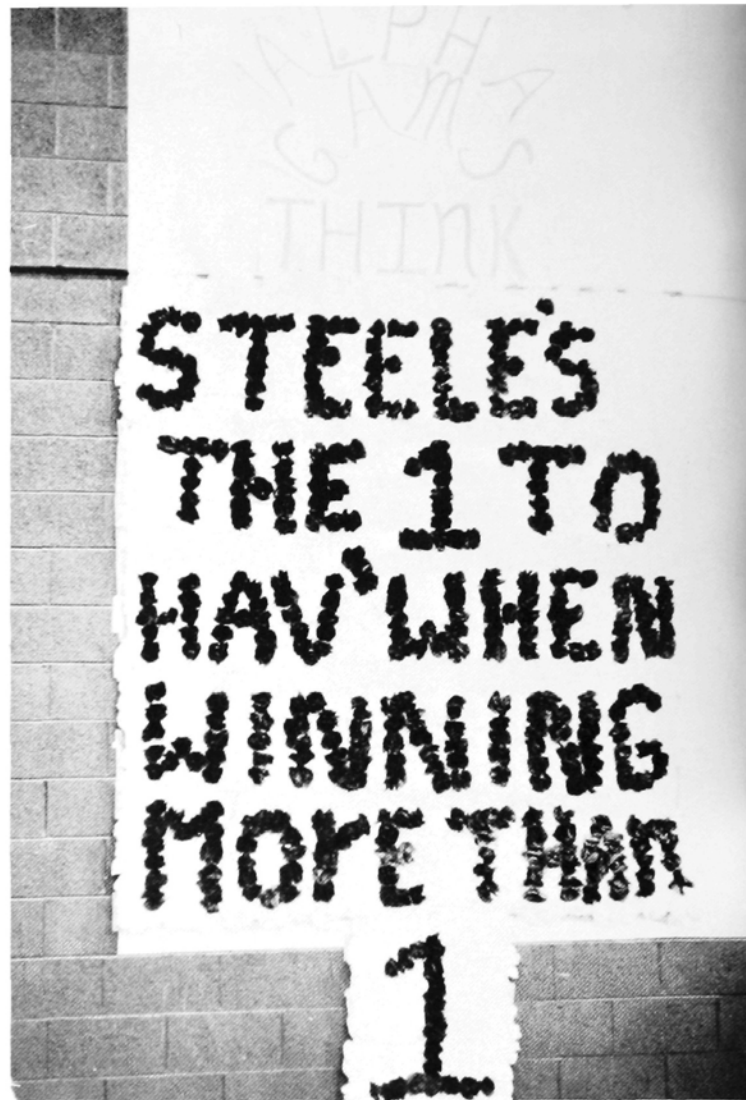

Jorge Nobre cools down as he ties for first place.

The crowds looked on as the Panthers defeated Catawba.

The Sig's placed second in the display contest winning a prize of $100.

The Alpha Gam's effort paid off as they captured first place in the banner competition.

A prize of $50 was won by the Zeta's for their display which placed third.

Alpha Delta Theta received first place, and $150 for their work.

Ron Byrne and Matthew Rogers performed at a coffee house in the Fall.

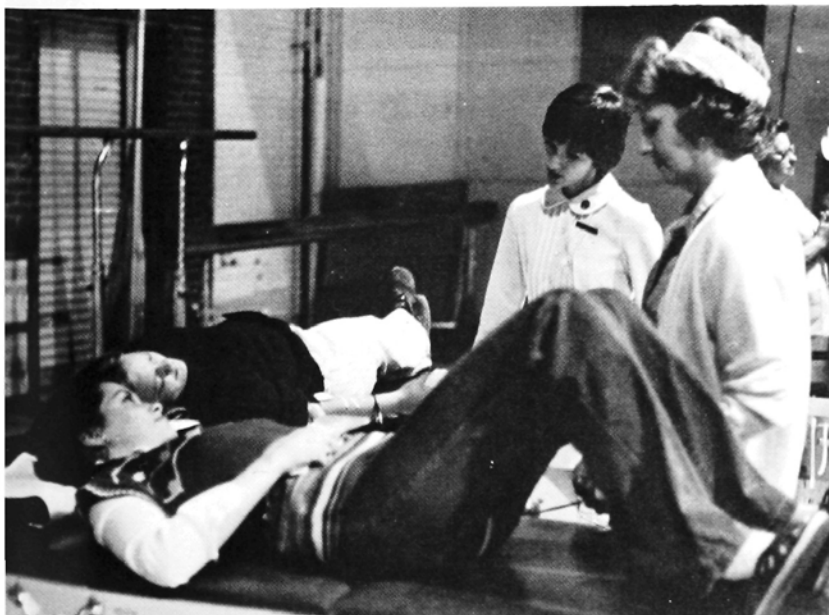

Three ice storms occurred during Interim, creating major blackouts and extensive property damage.

"Fight to the Top", written by Nanette Falls, was presented during the Theater Studio Productions

Wayne Schneider met Paul McCartney during the London Interim trip.

The APO's sponsored several Red Cross Blood-Mobiles throughout the year.

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

Nine HPC students were named to Who's Who this past year.

Faculty members nominated students, with the Student Personnel Committee making the final decision. Names were then submitted to the national headquarters for approval.

Selection was based on scholarship ability, extra-curricular activities, leadership, citizenship and service to HPC, and potential for future achievement.

Students named last year were Jim VanHorn and Milton Auman.

SOCCKER WINS CONFERENCE: ADVANCES TO PLAYOFFS

Showing its dominance in the Carolina's Conference for the third time in four years, the HPC Soccer Team compiled a 6-0 record in conference play, earning a berth in the District 26 Playoffs.

The season began on a promising note with a victory over UNC-G, but the team then proceeded to lose five games for a dismal start. Included in these losses was a tense 3-2 loss to highly rated Appalachian State in overtime.

The team opened conference play with a 1-5 record, but reeled off eight straight victories, including a string of seven shutouts to finish the regular season at 9-5. Advancing into the playoffs, the team suffered an opening round loss to rival Pfeiffer by a 5-2 count.

Individual standouts for the '77 squad included goalie Todd Miller who allowed 1.42 goals a game and Jeff Potter and Walter Roe who were responsible for 14 points each for the season.

Left: Maneuvering against Guilford in a 2-1 victory, Walter Roe tries to get free for a pass.

MEN'S BASKETBALL: ANOTHER TOUGH SEASON

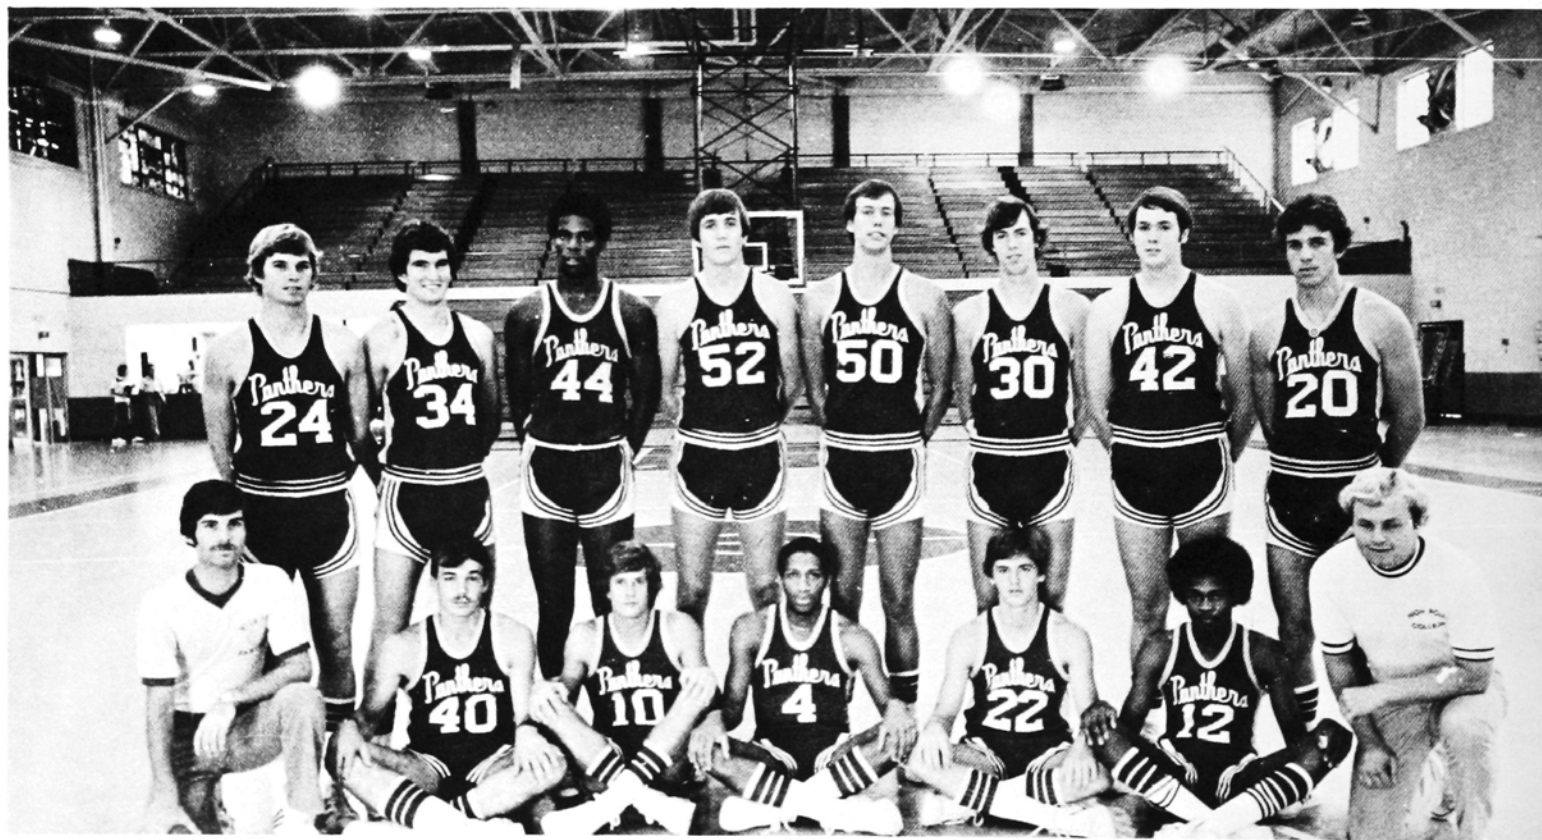

With a very young team in one of the toughest conferences in the south, a season could be very long and tough. However, the Panthers, who have been inconsistent at times, came through with victories when needed this past season. The addition of transfer Charlie Floyd to the line-up has been a great asset; Charlie had a season high 42 points against #1 ranked Gardner-Webb. Guards Johnny McQueen, Danny Anderson, and Scott Richardson have kept the offense moving all season with forwards Bob Hovey, Dennis West, and Steve Wheelless on the boards, and John O'Brien in the center. A strong bench with Joey Yow, Rick Callicut, Jay Yow, and Bob McIver, was the determining factor in many games.

A big homecoming victory over Catawba placed the Panthers in a tie for first place in the conference, and the win over Pfeiffer two days later clinched it.

The Panthers look forward to some good tournament play, and possibly first place.

FIELD HOCKEY: ANOTHER WINNING SEASON

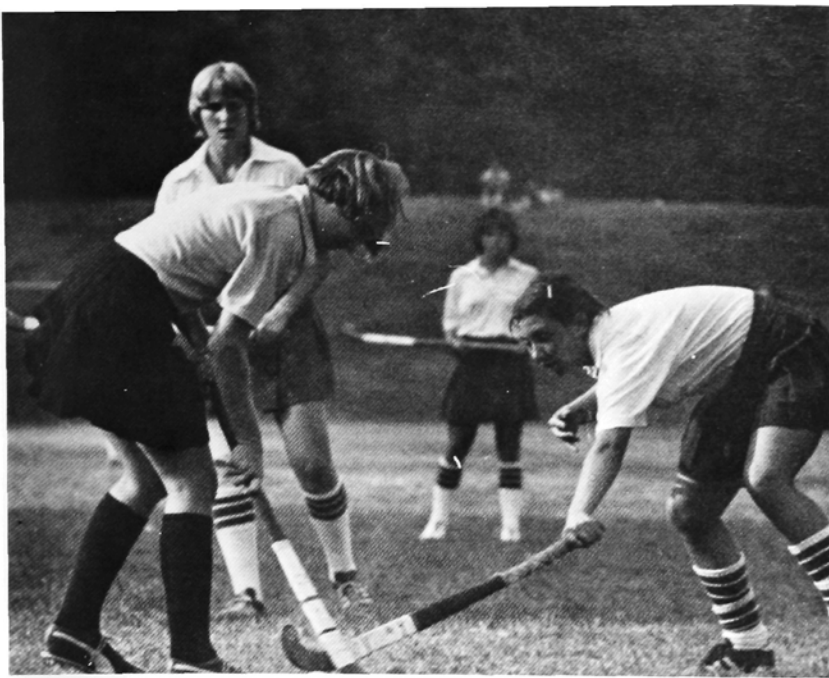

Under the fine leadership of head coach Kitty Steele and assistant coach Leslie Clark, the women's Field Hockey Team experienced another winning season with a final record of 14 wins, 2 loses, and 1 tie. This was the best record in the state. The team defeated Duke, Chapel Hill, UNCG, Clemson, and ECU. Tri-Captains Linda Ensey, Patti Wootten, and Debra Weber were team leaders throughout the season. Outstanding players throughout the season were: Linda Ensey, Patti Wootten, Vickie Williams, Kim Hall and Sandi Stusnick. Talented freshmen Alice Wainwright, Robin Eisenbrey, Denise Denise Holloway, Sharon Kaler, and Stephanie Higgins were strong assets to the team. The strong bench was a determining factor in many games. The women were seeded #1 in the state, but a loss to UNC-CH after defeating them earlier in the week destroyed hopes of a trip to regionals. Riddled with injuries to 3 key players, the loss to Chapel Hill was difficult to accept. Patti Wootten led the team in scoring with 13 goals while Alyson Wilk had another high scoring season with 7 goals and Debra Weber scored 6 goals. The defense was exceptionally strong with 10 shut outs. With the loss of only 2 seniors, the team looks to have another exceptional season next year.

WOMAN'S BASKETBALL — A REAL WINNER

After two highly successful seasons and a trip to Nationals both years, the team still continued their success. With the bulk of the team back and talented newcomers added, High Point experienced another winning season. Under the leadership of first year coach, Wanda Briley, the team experienced a transitional period, but still managed to perform well and produce a winning record. Enduring their toughest schedule in many years, High Point played Wayland Baptist, Old Dominion University, and N.C. State — All are nationally ranked. Robyn Cooper, Ethel White, Marie Riley, and Germaine McAuley are some top performers who returned. A victory over Pembroke proved to be the teams top defensive effort holding Pembroke to 38 pts. Playing in the tough Old Dominion Classic was a challenge for High Point and they performed exceptionally well

VOLLEYBALL TEAM TAKES REGIONALS: ADVANCES TO NATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Under the direction of first year coach, Wanda Briley, the Women's Volleyball team had another successful season with an overall record of 43 wins and 11 losses. This year, the team earned its third consecutive Carolina's Conference Championship, second state title, and second regional title. The team demonstrated a high skill level and good teamwork throughout the season. Outstanding players were Marie Riley, Ethel White, Germaine McCauley, Gracie Simmons, and Karen Christofferson, with Ana Maria Gonzalez and Roberta Riley proving themselves as adept freshmen. The bench was a determining factor in many victories. With five starters returning next year, HPC should continue its domination of the region in volleyball.

HIGH POINT BASEBALL: ALWAYS A WINNER

The High Point College baseball team has a reputation throughout the South as the "team to beat". The team has recorded thirty victories per season for the past decade, and the 1978 team appears to be continuing that tradition.

Last year, the team captured the Carolina's Conference, winning 39 games — the second highest number of victories in the school's history. With the bulk of last year's team returning, and many talented newcomers, this season looks to be the best yet. Tony Waite, a .380 batter and all-State performer, and Jim Mugele, an All-District performer, return to the infield. Joe Gabarino, who led the nation with 44 consecutive stolen bases, will be returning along with Jeff Kennedy, Tim Reid, Danny Wilbur, Gerald Culler, and John Grocki. The conference tournament MVP pitcher Kevin Keene is returning to the mound, as well as Mike Shugrue and Dirk Garley. Newcomers include pitchers Jay Schwamburger and Phil Cherry, and third baseman Rick Martin. Known as the best small college team in the South, HPC looks forward to continue their winning tradition, with a possible trip to the Nationals.

TENNIS TEAM ANTICIPATES WINNING SEASON

For nearly a decade, the men's tennis team has dominated small college play in the region. This year could mark the seventh consecutive year as a competitor in the National Tournament. With most of last year's team returning, and some highly skilled newcomers, HPC tennis seems likely to continue its winning ways.

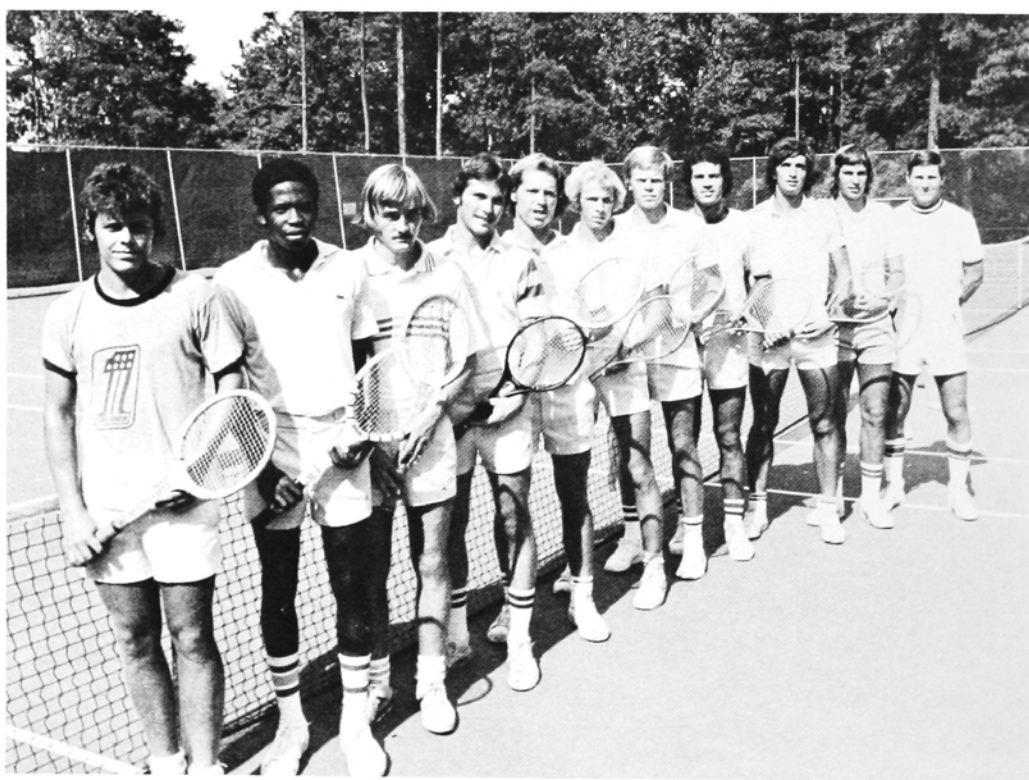

Returning players include Steve Sharman, Jeff Apperson, Willem de Grote, Phil Parrish, Lane Evans, Kendall Handy, David Burgess, and Tom Fitzmaurice. Parrish won the district singles last year, and teamed up with Tom Fitzmaurice to win the doubles title. The addition of Chris Hohnhold to the team provides even more competition for the top six positions; Hohnhold has been a Davis Cup participant. Among their competitors are Chapel Hill, Va. Tech., Appalachian, and Atlantic Christian. The Panthers look for another trip to the National Tournament.

Jeff Apperson skillfully demonstrates his backhand.

WOMEN'S TENNIS: BEST TEAM IN HPC'S HISTORY

Last year, the Women's Tennis Team experienced one of its most successful seasons, capturing the Carolina's Conference, and placing third in the state. With all but three players returning, this year's team looks to be even better. Returning players Marie Riley, Temma Allen, and Jean Richardson will join some talented newcomers to look forward to a successful season. Second year coach Kitty Steele has high hopes for the team and anticipates possible regional tournament play for the Lady Panthers.

Right: Freshman Vicky Williams, a highly skilled recruit from N. Virginia, is a prime candidate for #1 singles.

TRACK AND FIELD LOOKS TO A WINNING SEASON

Losing only two members from last year's team, and adding some adept freshmen to the team, High Point looks forward to a very successful season. Bill McCown is an outstanding hurdler from N. Virginia and is expected to dominate the conference in that event. Tracy Lyons, who holds the school record in Pole Vaulting, is also a top performer.

Our distance runners will be highly talented with Mark Hamlett, Perry Macheras, Randy Larzelere, and Robert Martin returning, and top performing freshmen Keith Chance, Jorge Nobre, Dave Flory, and Wes Koonts, competing as well.

Overall, the track team seems to be greatly improved with experience and new talent. Coach Davidson is looking for a great deal of individual and team success throughout the season

Freshman Bill McCown is a top hurdler.

HPC GOLF TEAM: A TOP COMPETITOR

The 1978 golf team looks for a highly successful season this year with many talented players. Five returning players and some exceptional newcomers will permit the team to look for a lot of good tournament play. HPC will play National champions Gardner-Webb, in addition to Elon and Guilford; these teams comprise the toughest district in the nation. Overall team depth, experience, and confidence may be the key to a very successful season. High Point is teamed with Clemson and the University of Michigan for the Coastal Carolina's Tournament, and is expecting some highly competitive rounds. The top players of the season will be Bill Wall, Tony Flippin, French Bolen, Paul Rapley, Bob Aydelette, and Jeff Hall.

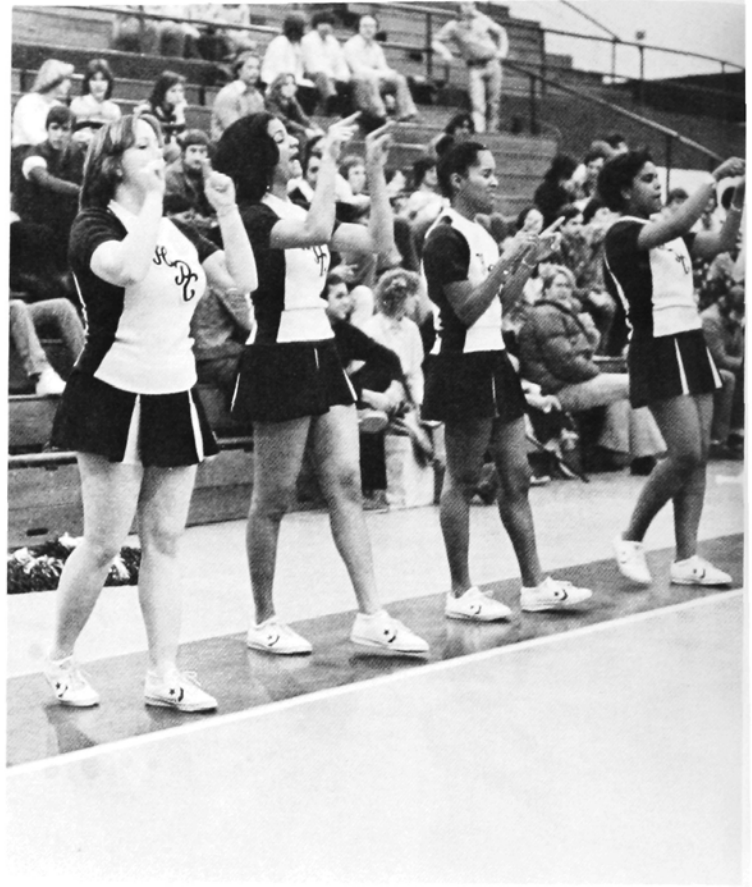

Bob Aydelette, top freshman, is the former Carolina's Jr. Amateur Winner.

French Bolen is an All-Conference player.

CHEERLEADERS BOOST SCHOOL SPIRIT

The 1977-78 Cheerleading squad proved to be the most spirited unit the school has had in many years. With only three returning cheerleaders, seven new squad members were chosen. Promoting school spirit at HPC is often a fruitless job, however, the squad continually supported the athletic teams. In addition to their vocal support, the members of the squad made banners to be hung at most of the home games.

Go, Panthers!

The Squad members include: Cindy Briggs, Tina Lynch, Marianne Phillips, Betty Maynor, Johnita Pearson, Sharon Manns, Mitzi Vestal, Natalie Harris, and Peggy Pesce.

INTRAMURAL PROGRAM EXPANDS

With the deletion of the Cross Country this Fall, the Intramural program expanded. Coach Bob Davidson served as director, with students Mel Mahler, Barry Sullivan, Patti Wooten, and Susie Gallup serving as coordinators.

The Intramural program is a service of High Point College, designed to allow every student the opportunity to compete competitively. The sports in the program this year included Softball, Tennis, Track, Basketball, Bowling, Soccer, Volleyball, Badminton, and Table Tennis. Tournaments involving the top teams took place, with the winners pictured on the following pages.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA CELEBRATES 20TH ANNIVERSARY

The Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity, Mu XE Chapter at High Point College celebrated its 20th Anniversary with many memories and great expectations as brothers, pledges, and as alumni gathered. The chapter was founded in 1958 and has since contributed 20 years of service and leadership to the campus and surrounding community.

Mu XE highlights this academic year with large donations to Muscular Dystrophy through it's fund raising projects. Two very successful bloodmobiles on campus, the annual railroad cleanup, and the Ugly Man on Campus Campaign, sponsored by the Fall Pledgeship, and a Campus Beautification Drive have rounded out this special year. Thank you Mrs. Blake, Mr. Dalbey, and Rev. Lowdermilk.

THEN — and Now carrying the purpose of friendship, leadership and service.

PHI MU: "LES SOEURS FIDELES"

March 4, 1852, Phi Mu was but a dream ... a dream conceived by three college students. This dream today is a beautiful reality ... composed of chapters reaching across the nation. Love, Honor, Truth ... our rich ideals binding "Les Soeurs Fideles" in a bond of the sisterhood.

The year '77-78 started off with a fantastic rush as we pledged 23 new Phis. Pledge dance, Christmas party, wine and cheese party, Phi Mu Weekend, and various service projects were but a few of the fun happenings of this year. But then came TROUBLE — Our Pres. has made the scene this year with her four-legged friend, Nugget ... Teach Jenö was attacked by her kindergarten class and thrown down the stairs ... The hall is not the same without Stinky ... Welshie has been seen on campus with that dark-haired fella — again ... Val plays hostess to Friday afternoon daiquiri parties — Yadkin 210 ... Surprise! Ronnie is out skinny dipping and carrying on all night love affairs ... Sarah may be our hall prude but she's got the makings of a fine woman ... Nanette and Beth left us in December but Nancy surprised us with a comeback ... Lynn-dada is always amusing us with her imitations ... TBR maintains a "reserved" seat for Annie ... Weenie, you may be cute but you're still a dick ... K.C. is our hall chemist — may she not blow us up. Often heard in the cafeteria is Debbie's distinct laugh ...

Laura is finally settling down and Stan's the man ... Sherry was last seen pushing that little green Vega down I-85 ... Professor Shaggy Dog — is that really you Anne? ... famous question on campus — Julie, Julie, Julie, do you love me? Susan is our woman of the world ... Kolleen — who's the latest? ... Sue Heeee! plays some mean basketball ... Susie — been in any wet t-shirts contests, lately? ... Donna D. has been seen with stars in her eyes ... Lil Cindy is our talented one ... Natalie adds rhythm to the hall ... Gigi is our wanted woman ... Cyndi — are you selling those kisses for a dollar? Ralph is our answer to happy days ... Jean — how about sharing your MAN? ... Sue may be quiet but don't let that fool you ... April — we love you, why did you wait so long to bounce into our lives? ... Cathy — no one knows what goes on behind closed doors ... Betsy is our coed rep ... Keep that neck covered — OK, Katie? ... Sid — Why are your cheeks red? ... Buzz — thanks for your McDonald's food runs ... Renee can't get away from the tube ... and Sharlia the slumber party was, a crashing success!!

Graduation brought the year to an end but the memories of fun, happy, and sad times continue with us as does our bond of friendship found within Phi Mu.

Debbie Russell tries to clean up her room.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

1977-78 was another great year for the Pikas. Congrats to Wubby for Who's Who ... Two overcame B. Law and B-ball to return in the fall. Abbott who really did attack your mirror? Giles caught cat scratch fever over fallbreak. Stretch is taking courses at Tom's. Dupe, what was that bump in the night against your car? Hearn was somewhere over the rain ... Ross in soccer you use your head. Perry is being called by the ASHE Mts. Dave made it to a few classes this year. Mike has Carolina fever every weekend. Tom has a new roommate. Tripper, I will work on files over break. Jim, 100 letter and we are gather here together ... Mark burned by Daddy and Denver. George replacing Gary in the lounge. Wubby has become moody. The Pledges had a bun-warming night and where are your canes?

ZETA TAU ALPHA

ZETA members include: Row one — Nan Thorne, Nancy Green, Donna Adams, Jackie Swing, Mary Wyatt, Jane Seltzer, Kendalle Bzdek, and MaryAnn McNamara; Row two — Terry Gardella, Mylene Fisher, Regina Stanley, Adrienne Smith, Tracy Taylor, and Tina Lynch; Row three — Myra Faulkenberry, Susanne McDermott, Suzette Wurster, Jennifer Raper, Sharon Stanback, Pam Ilderton, Ginny Williamson, Marianne Phillips, Cindy Sink, Ann Brawner, Kim Kramer, and Winnie Adkin; Row four — Cindy Locke, Wendy Bowman, Susan Whetstone, Marcy Randall, Sarah Hartgrove, Majd Khayyat, Mitzi Vestal, Jenny Bull, Elaine Johnson, Ginger Brown, Pam Aiken, Karen Monroe, Ann Leonard, Millie Greene, Wendy Dunham, Jenny Tucker, Ellen Smith, and Tammy Garrison.

1977-78 proved to be a good year for Zeta Tau Alpha. We started off the year by acquiring 21 new pledges. They're a great bunch of girls and have many new and exciting ideas to contribute to ZETA. Our great Pres. MaryAnn McNamara has been busy keeping the sorority organized and reinforcing the ideals for which we strive: individuality, friendship, and most of all, love. By the way MaryAnn, have you had any more orange juice and appendicitis attacks? Stanback has been "Nickpicking" her way through student teaching. Myra, are you really engaged to a cop?? When not delivering a pizza, Susan has been delivering to David. Suzette's been digging on Eli Willy and has been at the Monastery this year. Nan flew in "Flight to the Top". Kendalle, do you still have your crabs? When Mary wasn't "Yoning", she was being mother to 21 girls. Ginger has taken up residence at the Cloisters. Borstell, where were you when the sorority picture was being taken? Kilogram, are you still sperming around? Jackie has gotten her masters in Martinology. Jane, alias Sizzle, has been "Tinkling along and writing checks". Jenny B., why have you been spending so much time at the Kendall Center? Cindy got hooked up on "Slippery Rock". Nancy loves High Point's own Sylvester Stallone. Jenny R., did you ever make it to Atlanta? Mylene has become Zeta's own Sea Nymph. Wendy went through the year "Skipping" along. Karen has spent many hours looking out the window at the "Greenery" in the courtyard. Jenny T. spent most of her time ON Old McDonalds farm. Donna is it really true there's nowhere else like Troy? Marcy are you still sleeping up on the fourth floor of the library? — by the way how's Foo Foo? Terry says her eyes are red because of her allergies, but we know it's from all those dacquiri's. Through it all we all seemed to survive the year providing again the love and friendship of Zeta Tau Alpha.

DELTA SIGS . . . SAILOR'S BALL

The Delta Sigs sailed through another rush and once again pledged the best rushees around. We all enjoyed rush which ended with one of the best Drags ever, with many an old alumni coming back. To get the year going we had our traditional month of birthdays and the showers were kept busy. The big green machine rolled through several football games. Delta Sig Hall Frisbee and soccer make their appearances. After a year of fun and friendship, we once again "climax" the year with SAILORS BALL '78!!

HI-PO

For the academic year of 1977-78, the Hi-Po began under the direction of co-editors, Dave Bobbit and Arnold Hendrix. The paper began the year with a new slogan, "working for a better informed campus." After the first four issues, it was decided to have the paper published bi-weekly. In doing so, a large part of the financial strain was eliminated and the quality of the paper improved. Campus coverage became more in-depth with interviews with Pres. Patton and other administrators, and through other features such as the "pro-con editorials." Much of the credit for the improvements goes to the staff which doubled since last year. The staff included Assoc. Editor Robin Marley, Sports Editor Steve Bisbing, Business Manager Donald Bowles, Photographers Debbie Dorland and Debbie Johnson, and Writers and Layout Assistants Robin Henson, Nancy Reichle, Dan Darden, Colleen Blackney, Skip Harris, Scott Hance, Lisa Mickey, Robert Gillis, Robert Hoke, Ed Grandpre', Jan Dunkelberger, Mike Wallace, Kathy Covert, Susan Gaines, Phyllis Griffin, Linda Thompson, Nan Lytton, and Michelle Boyce.
